KEEPING YOU UP TO DATE

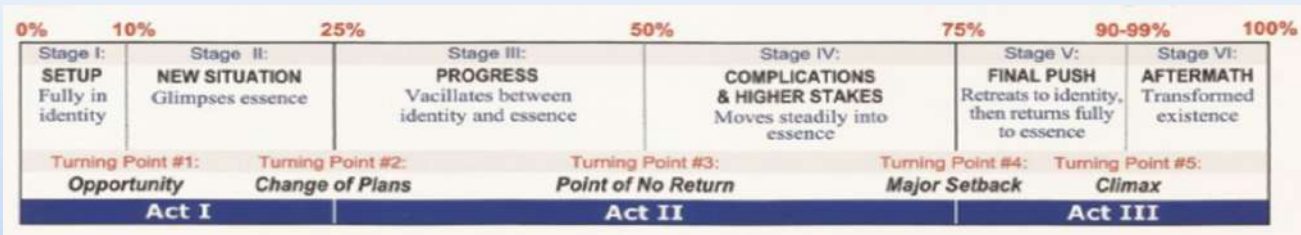

Week 45:
from Nov 4th

NOT MY PLAN

Ruth Chapter 1.

A lovestruck Romeo sang the streets of serenade, Laying everybody low with a love song that he made. Finds a streetlight, steps out of the shade; Says something like, "You and me, babe, how about it?" If you were wondering why I was quoting Dire Straits, its because it's a love song. And so is the Book of Ruth. Within the pages of the Bible we find all sorts of songs, facts, stories, poems and the likes. Ruth is one of the greatest love stories of all times. It has all the elements to bring this story to the fullness of life. It begins with life going well. Then tragedy hits. When all seems lost, there is a chance of bringing it back to happiness, through one person, a kind of saviour hero. Irony is this model of story telling throughout Hollywood and the likes, is how block buster movies are framed. Keep an eye on the graph provided as we work through the Book of Ruth. This graph shows the Six Stage Plot Structure created by Michael Haugue. This theme line is the hallmark for movie making. Ruth, as it unfolds through the four chapters can be identified in this structure. Chapter one covers up to the 25% line. Opportunity and change of plans. Come with us as we journey through the greatest Old Testament love story that prepares us for Christmas! Rev'd Tim
