KEEPING YOU UP TO DATE

Week 57:
from December 29

With the celebration of Christmas behind us, with our families returning to their homes and the rush of Christmas over, what are we to do while we wait for the new year and all that awaits us there? I finish the year with a thoughtful poem that reminds us of our continued journey in Christ.

When the song of the angels is stilled, when the star in the sky is gone, when the kings and princes are home, when the shepherds are back with their flocks, the work of Christmas begins:
to find the lost,
to heal the broken,
to feed the hungry,
to release the prisoner,
to rebuild the nations,
to bring peace among the people, to make music in the heart.

The poem "The Work of Christmas" by Howard Thurman's
